WRITE YOUR OWN SUPER STORY!

Write your own story about having a superpower. Do you have an adventure? Do you save someone? Solve a mystery? Stop a bully or a crime? Is it difficult for you to control your superpower? Are you going to try to hide it from others? Do you have problems achieving your goal? What do you learn about yourself?

If you could have one superpower... what would it be?

Imagine this! You come home from school to find a special box addressed to you. Inside the box is a magical object. What is it? Shoes? A watch? A hat? A backpack? You choose. What superpower does this magical object give you? What is the first thing you do to test your superpower? How does this superpower make you feel? Why is your object and your superpower the best one for you? What are the advantages of your superpower? Are there any disadvantages? (Note: You may only choose one object and one superpower.)
