JACQUELINE JULES is an author, teacher, librarian, and poet. Her school programs include writing activities, poetry, singing, and audience participation. She is available for in-person school visits and Skype visits. To book an author visit, e-mail Jacqueline at jjules@jacquelinejules.com

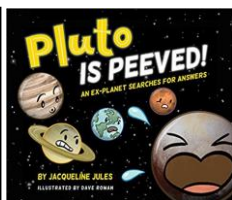

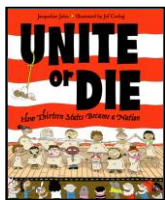

THE JOY OF WRITING: Using examples from Feathers for Peacock, Sofia Martinez, Duck for Turkey Day, Zapato Power, among others, the author talks about inspiration for ideas. The revision process is clearly demonstrated through a series of illustrations, showing how both text and art were strengthened. Program includes songs, poetry, and writing ideas. Grades K-5.

ZAPATO POWER is an award-winning chapter book series featuring Freddie Ramos, a boy who receives a mysterious box with super-powered purple sneakers. From then on, Freddie searches for ways to be a superhero. But can you be a hero and still go to elementary school? Using slides of comic book style illustrations, the author shares her process for developing plot and character. Grades K-4.

FEATHERS FOR PEACOCK is a pourquoi story with an original explanation for why the peacock has such beautiful tail feathers. Author discusses just-so tales and invites students to create their own stories about how animals came to look or behave as they do. Program includes a song and a brief introduction to other works by the author. Grades K-2 and Family Programming Events.

FUN WITH READER'S THEATER! Students participate in Reader's Theater with colorful comics projected on a screen. Unite Or Die: How Thirteen States Became A Nation presents the conflicts and compromises of the 1787 Constitutional Convention. Pluto Is Peeved: An Ex-Planet Searches For Answers follows a disgruntled Pluto as he roams the science museum to learn that he is not the only one whose status has been changed by scientific discovery. Grades 4-6.

POETRY PRESENTATIONS: With poems published in Cricket, Cicada, the Poetry Friday Anthologies, One Minute till Bedtime, Balloon Lit, Germ, and YARN, the author shares her process for writing poetry and provides models and ideas for student work. Classroom workshops available for Grades 1-8.
